THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY February 13th, to THURSDAY February 20th, 1755.

The humble Address of the Right Honorable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, presented to His Majesty on Friday the Fifteenth Day of November, 1754.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return Your Majesty our humble Thanks for Your most gracious Speech from the Throne. We are truly sensible of Your Majesty's wise and public-spirited Views to strengthen the Foundations, and secure the Duration of the General Peace, in which every Part of Europe is so nearly interested. And nothing can excite our warmest Gratitude more than that Concern, which You are pleased to express, that the Advantages of this Peace may be rendered lasting to Your People, by promoting their Commerce, and protecting those Possessions which are so essential to it; and are an Object of the Public Care, never to be departed from by this Country.

The friendly Assurances, which Your Majesty has lately received from the King of Spain, give us great Satisfaction; as we promise ourselves, that they will be followed with very salutary Effects, for advancing the important Ends already mentioned, in which both Nations will find a reciprocal Benefit.

Your Majesty's Goodness to Your People, in consenting to apply the Forfeited Estates in the Highlands to those Public Uses, to which they stand appropriated by the last Parliament, will always be thankfully remembered by us. We shall, with the greatest Readiness, concur in those Laws have always been the Rule, are one and the same Object, which will not fail to meet with our constant Attention.

Permit us, Sir, to take this Opportunity to renew the most solemn Assurances of our inviolable Fidelity and Affection to Your Sacred Person, and Government. In this, our Duty and our Interest unite, and are inseparable. Our Resolution is fixed and unalterable, to strengthen your Majesty's Hands, for preserving the Peace; supporting the Honour of Your Crown; and maintaining the Rights and Possessions of Your Kingdoms, against any Encroachments. The Maxim, graciously laid down by Your Majesty, that a mutual Confidence between You and Your Parliament is the surest Pledge of the Happiness, both of King and People, is highly worthy a British Monarch; and it shall be our zealous Endeavour, to demonstrate to the World the Stability of that Confidence; and, under the Protection of the Divine Providence, to transmit to our Posterity the Blessings of Your Majesty's Reign, in the Perpetuity of the Protestant Succession in Your Royal House.

His Majesty's most Gracious ANSWER.

My Lords,

I Return you My hearty Thanks for this very dutiful and affectionate Address. The Zeal you express for My Person and Government, and for maintaining the Rights and Possessions of My Crown, cannot fail to have the best Effects, both at Home and Abroad. The Confidence, which you repose in Me, shall always be made Use of for the true Interest of My People.

The humble Address of the House of Commons to the King.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great-Britain, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return Your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks, for Your most gracious Speech from the Throne; and to assure Your Majesty, that Your faithful Commons will gladly embrace every Opportunity of testifying their inviolable Attachment, and Duty to Your Royal Person, Family and Government.

It gives us the greatest Satisfaction, to find, that the wise Measures, Your Majesty has pursued, for strengthening and securing the General Peace, have been attended with so explicit a Declaration, on the Part of the King of Spain, of his Resolution to cultivate Friendship and Confidence with Your Majesty.

We acknowledge, with the highest Sense of Gratitude, Your Majesty's constant and uniform Endeavours for the Preservation of the Public Tranquility, at the same Time, that Your Majesty has not suffered Your Attention to be diverted from the necessary Consideration of Self-defence; and we assure Your Majesty, that we will support Your Majesty, and chearfully grant such Supplies as may give Weight and Efficacy to Your Majesty's Measures, for the Preservation of the General Peace, and enable Your Majesty to vindicate Your just Rights and Possessions from all Encroachments.

We beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting, on our Parts, to complete, and render effectual, to the common Benefit of the United Kingdom, that salutary Plan, formed by the last Parliament, for appropriating the forfeited Estates in the Highlands to the Uses of the Public; and we assure Your Majesty, that the gradual Reduction of the National Debt, and the Improvement of Trade and Commerce, so essential to the Strength and

1 1 part foretold is come to pass, and the queen dowager of Spain is acting the grand part for which she appears to have been designed. The empress of Russia, and the empress queen of Hungary, do not act a less remarkable part upon the great theatre of the world: But this dowager queen is the most indefatigable in her endeavours to put in execution her political projects, which tend to bring yet another crown into her house, and, if she lives, perhaps, to re-unite the crown of Spain and Portugal. It is said by those people who have interest in saying so, that this will never happen, (Ipsi viderunt): Don Lewis's resignation of the cardinal's hat is the first step towards effecting such a design, his marriage with the heiress of Portugal will, according to all probability, be the second: What events may not this produce? What a theatre does it open for this politic queen to act upon! She has in a great measure the means of accomplishing what she aims at, if the ministers of France and Austria do not traverse her views, she being mistress of a large part of Italy, and of all Spain. All the politicians in Europe ought at present to have their attention fixed upon the designs of this Queen in favour of her darling Infant Don Lewis, who seems destined to make an extraordinary figure in the World, especially, if he marries a Princess of Portugal, and that the Queen of Spain continues to have no Child, as for the misfortune of Europe, there is no likelihood she should, she being 43 years old. For, whether the Don's mother places him upon the throne of Spain, Portugal, or Naples, he will scarcely fail, if he follows her inspirations and maxims, to act a very eminent part in the affairs of Europe, especially as the forces of these kingdoms are now in so advantageous a situation.

LONDON.

Oct. 31. A letter from Paris intimates, that the parliament of that city had been recall'd, if Lewis XV. had not wanted money; that the Aggressions are still in high favour, notwithstanding what has been published to the contrary; and that it is very much doubted whether the clergy of France will remain quiet: Most people think the dispute will not yet end; but if the parliament be left at their liberty, they, it is thought, will humble the proud ecclesiasticks.

Nov. 2. Private letters from Moscow, inform us, that the affairs of the empire are conducted with a strict regard to the public welfare: That her imperial majesty is every day more attentive to the noble designs of her great father, and her chief ambition, is to render her reign happy, by promoting the happiness of her people: That the revenues of the empire are augmented within these seven years, half of what they were before, and that without any new burthen on the subject: And that Russia is at present in so flourishing a state, that the number of people, out of which her recruits of soldiers are raised, is increased within these twenty years one third.

This morning a considerable quantity of ordnance stores was shipped for the straits.

Nov. 5. According to letters from Lisbon of good credit, the whole nation of Portugal cries out against the marriage of a princess of the house of Braganza, with the infant don Lewis, for fear least this marriage should, in process of time, bring Portugal under the Spanish yoke.

There is a report, that some late letters from France are full of strong assurances that orders have been already dispatched for the immediate suspension of hostilities in America, and the retreat of the French troops to their former boundaries.

From Hanover, by this day's Holland mail, they write, that the troops of that electorate are to be new cloathed in the spring, and to hold themselves in readiness to be reviewed by the king, who is expected there about the middle of April.

London, Nov. 12. They write from Paris, that all conversation is engrossed by the surprising secret found out by a Swiss physician to preserve life without either eating or drinking. When this was first some soldiers were shut up with a guard over them for a fortnight, during which time they took no kind of aliments, except a dose of powder of that physician's composition, diluted in wine, beer, or water, which was given them every morning and evening. On the 15th day they appeared to be in as good health and as strong as the first day. The same experiment was afterwards made on the physician for fifteen days, and had the same effect as with the soldiers. Notwithstanding these trials, there are people that cannot believe this physician's powder has the virtue of answering the ends of food for such a space of time. Further experiments are to be made on prisoners and other persons; after which the government will consider what use may be made of this extraordinary invention.

On sunday morning General Braddock arrived at his house in Arlington-street from France, and the same morning he waited on his majesty and the duke of Cumberland, who arrived at his apartments about nine o'clock for the winter.

Orders are sent to the searchers of the sea ports in the county of Kent, to be very strict in examining all passengers of mean degree, that go to France; it being discovered that many men, especially natives of Ireland, daily embark to enlist themselves in the service of the French king.

This morning several officers embarked at the tower, and at the same time a great quantity of ammunition was shipp'd, for Virginia. They are to go first to Cork, in order to take on the regiments there, and then proceed on their voyage.

Capt. Orme is appointed aid-de-camp to general Braddock.

There are letters in town from Germany which advise, that prince Frederic of Hesse (engaged to the princess Mary of England) gojured the Protestant religion in the presence of the elector of Cologn during the journey he made four years ago, in company with his father, to the castle of Neuhaus, a seat of the elector, situate at the gates of Paterborn. This important step has been hitherto carefully concealed, and only got air since prince Frederic's journey this summer to Aix and the Spa. The confidence and filial love which he shewed for the bishop of Augsbourg, during the few weeks that that they ſtaid there together, gave a ſuſpicion to certain perſons, who watching him more narrowly, diſcovered in the ſequel that he had aſſiſted ſeveral times at maſs and received the communion from the hands of a romiſh prieſt. Prince William of Heſſe-Caſſel, his father, greatly moved at the news, which he ſo little expected, expreſſed his reſentment by immediately ſtripping him of the poſt of commander in chief of his forces, which he gave to general Dieden. This officer was ordered at the ſame time to inform the ſon of his being degraded, and to ſignify to him that his father forbad him to appear in his preſence, or to aſſiſt at any council or conference. M. Dieden was further ordered to ſignify to prince Frederic that he could not be ignorant that he was a ſubject of the landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel.

Nov. 16. Prince Frederic of Heſſe, after having learnt in his infancy and youth the principles of the reformed religion under thoſe maſters which the landgrave his father thought the fitteſt to fix them in his underſtanding and his heart, was afterwards ſent to Lauſanne and to Geneva under the care of M. Crouſaz, to take in there by large draughts the ſpirit of Calvin and of Beza.

Nov. 21. Next Saturday is abſolutely fix'd for the departure of Major General Braddock, to take the command of the forces in an expedition to North America.

Nov. 28. On tueſday general Braddock ſet out from his houſe in Arlington ſtreet for Portſmouth, to go on board the Centurion man of war for America, and take upon him the command of the forces there.

The tranſports are all ordered to Cork with the utmoſt expedition; and all the officers that are to command in the new-raiſed regiments, are ordered to depart on pain of being caſhier'd.

Dec. 3. We hear that the land tax for the enſuing year will be two ſhillings in the pound.

Philadelphia, Jan. 14. On Wedneſday laſt ſeveral chiefs of the Mohawk Indians and ſome of their Warriors, arrived here; but upon what Buſineſs we have not heard.

And Yeſterday Ten of the Cherokee Indians came to Town, who, we hear, were taken Priſoners by ſome French about two Years ago, and carried to Canada; from whence they lately made their Eſcape, and got to Albany, and from thence travell'd to this Place, in their way to South-Carolina.

There is ſo much Ice at preſent in the River, that our Navigation is ſtopt.

CHARLES-TOWN, Febr. 20

Yeſterday His Majeſty's Ship Sheerham, commanded by Capt. William Marſh, fell down into Rebellion-Road, in order to proceed the firſt Opportunity for Jamaica.
